

AP Statistics Reading Notes

Pg. 142—146

1. When we describe a scatterplot, we look at
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
 - c. _____
 - d. _____
2. Sketch a scatterplot with the following properties
 - a. Strong, positive, and linear relationship
 - b. Weak, negative and linear relationship
 - c. No association or relationship
 - d. Non-linear relationship
3. We can only make a scatterplot of _____ data.
4. The Explanatory or Predictor variable is placed on the _____ - axis.
5. Response variable is placed on the _____ - axis.
6. What is the difference between “univariate data” and “bivariate data”? What kind of data do we display with a scatterplot?
7. Complete pg. 160-167, #5, 7, 10.